Travel Tips

Even in broad daylight, you may be a target for thieves. Wear a money belt and keep a close eye on your luggage. Organize your travel documents and train tickets so that you don't have to fumble around; a pickpocket will take advantage of your confusion and steal something before you know what has happened.

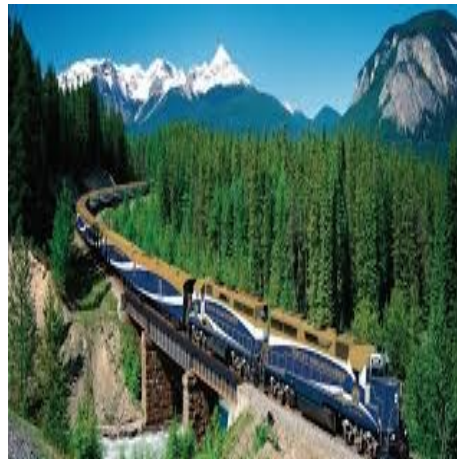

If you must spend several hours in a train station, find a place to sit that is well lit and near other travelers.

The Rocky Mountaineer

Within the unique world of rail travel, Rocky Mountaineer is so much more than just a train. It's the key to unlocking a hidden world of unparalleled beauty as you carve through otherwise inaccessible terrain in the Canadian Rockies. And your job aboard the all-dome fleet? To indulge in the most luxurious journey you've ever experienced. It's a tall order, but you're moving in the right direction.

Imagine being able to scale the sides of mountains or weave alongside steep canyons -- all without having to worry if you brought the right shoes. With Rocky Mountaineer, they've got you covered (in luxury that is).

From glittering oceans to untamed wilderness, our four distinct routes will move you in ways you never dreamed. Ok, fine. You probably did dream about it. The best part? It's even better than you imagined!

The Rocky Mountaineer is famed for many things: its impeccable service, its onboard amenities, its world-class dining experiences and most of all, its unbeatable routes through the majestic Canadian Rockies. While on board you can choose from SilverLeaf or GoldLeaf Service, both of which offer all of the comforts of home and postcard sights of the changing landscape. While following the Journey Through the Clouds train route, these views will begin on the West Coast in Vancouver and take you deep into the Canadian landscape, all the way into Jasper National Park. Because everything is taken care of for you on the train, all you have to do is sit back and enjoy the ride

Close your eyes and picture a journey that transports you from cosmopolitan city centres to the best sights in the Canadian Rockies without using roads, gasoline or google maps. It's not rocket science, it's Rocky Mountaineer.
