At Beaches Resorts, kids are treated like royalty, in generously styled family suites and in an array of programs catering especially to toddlers, tweens and teens. Expertly trained caregivers provide enriching, entertaining experiences for the little guests, and older children get their own spaces in game rooms and other hangouts where they can make new friends – while parents relish private time with each other. Beaches also brings families together, enabling mom, dads and kids to reconnect with each other, far removed from the stress of everyday life. And that is the true luxury: time. Time to appreciate each other, to refresh relationships and to rediscover all the things you love about each other.
