CUBA

- Cuba requires visitors to have non-U.S. medical insurance, which is usually included in airline ticket prices on flights originating in the United States or can be purchased Through ourselves.
- For legal reasons, with the MSC cruise lines, upon embarkation in Miami, all passengers visiting Cuba will be asked to hand in two printed copies, duly filled in and signed, of the legal declaration found as an attachment to the e-ticket e-mail (two copies for each passenger above the age of 18 - minors can be managed by their parents in the same declaration).

Want to Visit Cuba?

Check out the beautiful Ship MSC Armonia®, Cruising , leaving October 14, 2019 You will even be able to stay Overnight in Havana Starting at the low rate of only $399 plus taxes and fees.

Sail Italian style aboard the MSC Armonia®, Leaving from Miami, stop include Jamaica, Cayman Islands, Mexico and Cuba staying overnight in Havana.

This ship has 9 passenger decks, 2 pools and 10 bars and lounges. If you're looking to relax, the ship has a solarium for you to commune with the sun and shut out all the life's stresses. When you're hungry try one of the pizzeria, or indulge in the gelatari for a special treat. Then visit one of the broadways shows or hit the dance floors for a spectacular night.

We have blocked out spaces for cabins from interior to Balconies and they are going fast.

Disney's Star Wars: Galaxy

The newest addition to Disney Theme Parks, Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge, will open ahead of schedule on May 31 at Disneyland Resort in Southern California and August 29 at Disney's Hollywood Studios in Florida because of "tremendous demand."

Disney's largest single-themed land expansions ever will now open in two phases—phase one will give guests the chance to ride through the galaxy aboard Millennium Falcon: Smugglers Run, sample galactic food and beverages, and explore a collection of merchant shops.

Phase two, opening later this year, will be Star Wars: Rise of the Resistance. The attraction ever imagined that will put guests in the middle of a climactic battle between the First Order and the Resistance and will blur the lines between fantasy and reality.

TSA TIPS ALARM BELLS

Hair accessories such as bobby pins, metal clips, ties, wraps, and even bows may cause an alarm. This may also include clip-on extensions, wigs, toppers, and certain hair styles such as braids or a hair bun. To avoid any potential delays, it's best to keep it simple while going through security. You can always style your hair to your liking after you've gone through screening and right before you board your flight.

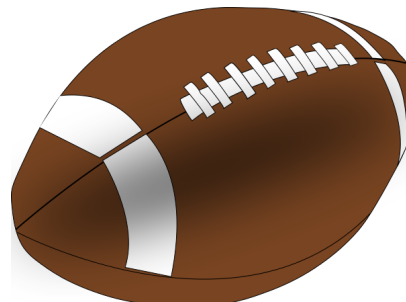

Gifts - DO NOT PRE WRAP GIFTS/PRESENTS TAKE TAPE AND WRAPPING PAPER AND THEN WRAP AFTER SECURITY OR THEY MAY HAVE TO TEAR IT OPEN. Always remember liquid rule 3 oz in a quart bag. If you travel with lots of electronics think about TSA PRE Check.
