Baggage

As so many airlines charge fees for carry on bags, as well as checked here are some tips:

1 - Pre book and pay for either usually cheaper.

2 - Be careful checked baggage sometimes cheaper than carry on due to space.

3 - Check a bag at the gate for free. This can be a gamble, not a policy, and only applies if you have a standard-size carry-on you usually check because you don't want the hassle of hunting for overhead bin space. Airlines have been checking carry-on bags for free at the gate since the advent of baggage fees. On busy flights carry-on bags, they often ask for volunteers who want to check them for free. However make sure you take out your medicines / jewelry / car keys / batteries and money.
