10 Of The Quirkiest Hotels In The U.S

Travelers seeking bizarre, memorable places to stay should check out any of these properties, which include locomotive lodging, a historic ferry, a Victorian lighthouse, and a B&B that floats.

Dog Bark Inn—Cottonwood, ID

Dog Bark Park Inn is a bed & breakfast guesthouse inside the World's Biggest Beagle. Guests enter the body of the beagle from a private 2nd story deck. Some of the dog's decorative furnishings are carvings by Dog Bark Park chainsaw artists Dennis & Frances. Inside and up another level to the head of the dog is a loft room with additional sleeping space plus a cozy alcove in the muzzle.

East Brother Light Station - Point Richmond, CA

East Brother Lighthouse, or more accurately a Light Station, is a beautifully restored California Victorian Lighthouse Dinner, Bed & Breakfast Inn perched atop an island in the strait that separates San Francisco and San Pablo Bays.

East Brother Light Station has been an active lighthouse for more than 133 years. The Inn began operations over 30 years ago as a means of earning money for upkeep of the restored lighthouse and facilities.

El Cosmico-Marfa, TX

El Cosmico is an 18 acre nomadic hotel and campground in Marfa, Texas. In keeping with the belief that life should be a balance of adventure and do-nothingness we offer shelter, occasional entertainment, opportunity for learning/doing/making, and access to the majesty of the high plains desert. From its wide open spaces to the vast canopy of stars above. Accommodations at El Cosmico include renovated vintage trailers, safari and scout tents, Sioux-style tepees, and tent campsites. The property also offers several communal spaces for guests – a hammock grove, an outdoor kitchen and dining area, a community lounge and mercantile, an outdoor stage, a reading room. We rent wood-fired hot tubs as the burn ban allows, and bikes for exploring Marfa.

21c Museum Hotel Bentonville - Bentonville, AR

Located on the northeast corner of the Bentonville town square and a short walk to Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art, 21c Museum Hotel Bentonville is a 104-room boutique hotel, contemporary art museum, cultural civic center, and home to The Hive restaurant. Stay with us and the iconic Green Penguins.

Green Turtle Floating Bed and Breakfast—Boston, MA

The Green Turtle is a floating bed & breakfast as luxurious as it is unique. Set in the historic Charlestown Navy Yard, the Green Turtle offers an expansive view of the Boston Harbor skyline along with the comfort and amenities of a modern bed and breakfast. Walk to the USS Constitution and the Freedom Trail to the North End and downtown Boston or take the water ferry to numerous points along the city's waterfront. From the airport, you can take a water taxi to get to the B & B.
