Next April, two ships will embark from two continents, meeting in the middle of the Atlantic, at the exact spot and time the Titanic sank 100 years earlier, to celebrate the iconic cruise with themed experiences and knowledgeable speakers. One of those ships, departing from Southampton, is already sold out, but cabins are still available on the Titanic Anniversary Cruise departing from New York aboard the luxurious Azamara Journey. Filled with unique and enlightening experiences, this once-in-a-lifetime journey into history will also take you to Halifax to visit the cemeteries where many of the victims were laid to rest.

Titanic Anniversary Cruise April 10, 2012

8-night roundtrip New York featuring:
World renowned historians and lecturers, including Captain Bill Wright, captain of the largest cruise ship in the world; Bill Miller, "Mr. Ocean Liner"; Ken Marschall, globally recognized as the world's leading Titanic artist; Gunter Bäbler, who participated in the Titanic expedition to the wreck site. Selection of food and drinks that were originally served on the Titanic. Visit Halifax to visit the three cemeteries where some of the victims of the disaster are buried. Themed entertainment around the era. From $4,900.
